Fin Gall The Norsemen James

Fin Gall: Gaelic term for Vikings of Norwegian descent. It means "White Strangers." I've been in the mood for an exciting and adventurous Viking tale for a while now and I knew James L. Nelson was an author who never disappoints. Once again, my faith in him has been rewarded with the first novel in his Norsemen Saga series.

Fin Gall (The Norsemen Saga, #1) by James L. Nelson

The Fin Gall - meaning white strangers in Gaelic - was the name the Irish gave to the Norse. Dubh Gall - black strangers - was the name given to the Danes or those of Danish descent. As the author notes in his historical note, the Irish were the only ones to make such a distinction.
