The premise is that a young man has committed suicide in the middle of winter at a place called Misery Bay, miles from anywhere and deep in snow. His father can't cope with not knowing why and so enlists the help of his friend in the local police who then calls in Alex McKnight, a PI with a history.

Misery Bay (Alex McKnight Book 8) eBook: Hamilton, Steve ...

Misery Bay is a tiny community on the western side of the Keweenaw Peninsula. The beach area is more or less deserted on a warm sunny day in midsummer and would be relentlessly grim in the winter. That was where the first body of a college student was found hanging from the branches of a tree facing Lake Superior, a supposed suicide.
